

Submission Guidelines – Kuma2.net

Artwork & Photography

Thanks for your interest in submitting poetry or stories to Kuma. Before sending in your submission, please read & follow all of these steps. It will make reading your submissions easier for us.

On Kuma2.net, art work and photography appear in Kuma Gallery

Subject Matter

- We are looking for paintings, sketches, photography, comic strips and other forms of art which explore/examine/celebrate our sensuality/sexuality
- We need to have 3 pieces minimum to create a gallery space.

Content

- We do not want images that depict non-consensual sex or illegal activities

Format

- We want high quality images
 - No grainy, blurry, or small images
- We can accept the following formats: gif, jpg, or tiff
 - If you are sending several images, feel free to compress them into a .zip file

How To Submit

- All submissions must contain your contact information:
 - Your real name, your street address, email address, and a telephone number
 - This information is just for our records and will never be given to anyone else or be displayed online
 - We can not display your work if you do not provide contact information
- Tell Us:
 - If you want to use your real name on your work or a pen name
 - If you want to receive reader feedback--and which email address you want those responses to go to
 - The copyright year for each piece (the year the work was written/completed in.)
- If you want:
 - You can send us a bio and a picture of yourself
 - You can send a mini essay about each piece. Talk about how you feel about it or what inspired you to create it.
- Emailing submissions:
 - We prefer to art submission sent as attachments
 - Send your work to art@kuma2.net and put Art Submission as the subject
 - Your submission may go to the spam folder if you use the wrong subject
 - Within 48 hours you should get confirmation that we have received your submission.

These are the guidelines. We look forward to receiving your submissions.
